

THE DIANA DONALD SCHOLARSHIP

In honor of the late Diana Donald, the Connecticut Chapter of the American Planning Association is pleased to announce the availability of a $2,350 scholarship, with $2,000 provided by CCAPA, and $350 donated by Fitzgerald and Halliday in memory of Bruce Hoben.

Diana Donald, who passed away in 1975, was a Connecticut-based planner who was recognized nationally for her contributions to the profession. At the time of her passing, at age 40, she was the First Vice President of the American Institute of Planners and was in line to become President. Her status in the association set an historical precedent for women in planning.

To be considered for this scholarship, you must be a resident of Connecticut or a student at a Connecticut institution enrolled in a graduate program in planning or a planning-related field. The scholarship then will be awarded based on the following review criteria:

- ❑ The student shall demonstrate the ability to work effectively as part of a group and/or the public.
- ❑ The student shall demonstrate superior academic skills.
- ❑ The student shall demonstrate financial need.
- ❑ The student shall demonstrate an intention to pursue a career in planning or a planning related field.

Copies of the scholarship application and contact information are attached. Candidates, please forward a completed application form together with transcripts, evidence of financial need, three letters of recommendation, and an essay to:
