DISCRETIONARY AWARDS

CCAPA's Executive Board may consider conferring two discretionary awards. Please email CCAPA President Jason Vincent if you have recommendations: J.Vincent@planimetrics.net

BRUCE HOBEN DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

This Award is given in memory of Bruce Hoben, whose selfless involvement with and longtime leadership in the Chapter along with his many contributions to the practice of planning in Connecticut, truly exemplify the spirit of distinguished service.

SPECIAL CHAPTER

On occasion, the Chapter may recognize an outstanding effort of one of its members or the accomplishments of an organization through a special chapter award.

CATEGORIES

PUBLIC SERVICE

To an individual (or group of individuals) acting in public capacity who has contributed to the public benefits of planning through the promotion or application of sound planning principles or played a significant role in a specific planning project.

PUBLIC PROGRAM/POLICY

To a public program, process or policy of unusually high merit that demonstrates achievable strategies for addressing conservation, development, environmental protection, regional planning or other issues affecting Connecticut's quality of life.

COMMUNICATIONS

For media coverage or an outreach program that broadens the general public's understanding of planning processes, issues, objectives or accomplishments.

CITIZEN PLANNING

To a citizen or group of citizens working in a non-compensated capacity who has made a significant contribution to planning.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

For a project, program or initiative that bolsters the social and economic welfare of a neighborhood or community.

COMPATIBLE DEVELOPMENT

For a project approved or constructed in the past year that embraces sound planning principles and demonstrates compatible development practices.

IMPLEMENTATION To an adopted plan, ordinance or regulation that embodies clear and achievable actions through demonstrated results.

SUSTAINABILITY

A project or program that exemplifies the principles of sustainability and achieves a balance of physical, social and economic forces.

CCAPA 2011 PLANNING AWARDS
